NEWS-LETTER HAPPY NEW YEAR

Thanks to all who turned out on the 30th December to help clean the museum. It looks great

New Displays for 2018.

The 1918/1919 display is already installed. There is an interesting small exhibition of items found on the surface of the field where the dig took place in 2017 on the Purton Road. I am currently working on a coin display which should be in place from the end of January.

Forthcoming Events

I will send out Museum Volunteer training dates at the end of next week.

If you are interested in getting hands on with the archive, please do come and join us: there will always be a need to continuously review the archive, checking the item location against our database and working out how we can make the items more accessible to both the members and visitors. Any member can join this team, training will be given or you can just call in and see what we are doing

New External front doors

Under our lease for the Museum, whilst we are responsible for maintaining the internal aspects, the external maintenance is down to the Cricklade Town Council.

I am delighted to be able to confirm that on the 19th December our new external doors were installed. Our thanks go to the Town Council for agreeing to the new doors. I understand the top coat of paint will be painted on quite soon. Meanwhile, here is a picture of them, in all their splendour taken on the 28th December 2017.
