NEWS-LETTER HAPPY NEW YEAR

Forthcoming Events

Archive Dusting and Museum Cleaning on Saturday 29th December, 10-12. Please come and help, more volunteers means the job is done faster. Refreshments will be served to keep your strength up.

Saturday 12th January Museum re-opens with an invitation to you to come and enjoy refreshments whilst you have a look at all the new displays that have been put in place since we closed, the new Timeline will be in place, the beautiful art work by the members of the Cricklade Art Group is on display along with new displays about Music, Clay Pipes and more finds from the Purton Road site. We have put small art works from the archive onto the wall and created a display of Recreation and some family groups from one of our large photographs collection.

The Art Group has also been invited to this event.

Wednesday 20th February – AGM

Friday 15th March – Annual Quiz Night at the Town Hall, tickets from Yvonne Keeble on 751963

Wednesday 20th March – “Lost and Lonely Churches” speaker John Hickman

New Porch Roof

In the autumn the new porch roof was installed and all the gaps in the stonework of the porch have been filled. Over the last few days the new ceiling has been put in the porch and painting will be underway once we can get the filler to dry!

Museum Volunteers

After many years of support with maintenance and museum duty John Lawrence has decided to retire from his museum activities. He will be greatly missed. We need more volunteers to help keep the museum open, please let me know if you would like to join the volunteer team.

Training is given.

Refresher training for existing volunteers will take place in the last two weeks of January.
Volunteers, please let me know if you are not available at any times in this period. New volunteers will be trained separately.

Committee Members

We have a small committee running the Historical Society and the Museum, we meet for about 1 hour every two months on a Monday evening, We have lost a couple of committee members over 2018 due to other commitments and John Lawrence has retired from the Committee. If you are interested in being involved in the running of the society please contact me so we can have a chat about your role.
